

Contents

Water Policy – Water Politics .....	1
Peter P. Mollinga
Part I Global Norms and National Policies
Towards Implementation of the World Commission on Dams Recommendations .....	33
Michael Fink and Anne Cramer
How Global Norms for Large Dams Reach Decision-Makers .....	55
Waltina Scheumann
Global Environmental Governance and Its Influence on National Water Policies .....	81
Imme Scholz
Global Water Governance: Managing Complexity on a Global Scale ....	107
Maria Schnurr
Part II Critical Debates Revisited
Strategic Virtual Water Trade – A Critical Analysis of the Debate .....	123
Susanne Neubert, DIE in collaboration with Lena Horlemann
The Debate on “Water as a Human Right” and its Implications for Development Assistance .....	147
Danuta Sacher and Michael Windfuhr
Rethinking IWRM Under Cultural Considerations .....	177
Manfred Matz

Part III Politics of Water Supply and Sanitation

Private Sector Participation in Water Supply and Sanitation .....	205
Thomas Kluge and Ulrich Scheele

Sector Reforms for Sustainable Financing of Water and Wastewater Services .....	227
Franz-Josef Batz

The Political Economy of Water and Sanitation Services in Colombia ....	237
Matthias Krause

Part IV Power Plays in Irrigation Reforms

Political Power Play in Bulgaria's Irrigation Sector Reform .....	259
Insa Theesfeld

Two Steps Forward, One Step Back: Institutional Change in Kyrgyz Water Governance .....	277
Elke Herrfahrtdt-Pähle

Part V Development Cooperation

The World Bank's Water Sector Policy Reforms .....	301
Volkmar Hartje

Challenges for German Development Cooperation in the Water Sector ...	333
Martin Kipping

Addressing the Need for Water Service Delivery in Fragile States .....	353
Stefan Lindemann

EU Water Initiative – A (non-) Innovative Form of Development Cooperation .....	379
Lena Partzsch

Index .....	401
--------------------	-----