Contents
6 The Frontline Costs of the Southern Cross Decline
Joe Greener

7 Hairdressing/Undressing: Comparing Labour Relations in Self-Employed Body Work
Teela Sanders, Rachel Lara Cohen and Kate Hardy

Part III Sexualizing and Desexualizing Bodies in the Labour Process
8 Altered Bodies, Engineered Careers: A Comparison of Body Technologies in Corporate and Do-It-Yourself Pornographic Productions
Lori L. Fazzino

9 From Erotic Capital to Erotic Knowledge: Body, Gender and Sexuality as Symbolic Skills in Phone Sex Work
Giulia Selmi

10 ‘What Does a Manicure Have to Do With Sex?': Racialized Sexualization of Body Labour in Routine Beauty Services
Miliann Kang

11 Touch in Holistic Massage: Ambiguities and Boundaries
Carrie Purcell

Part IV Disciplining and Resistant Bodies
12 Racing Bodies
Janet Miller

13 Body Work and Ageing: The Biomedicalization of Nutrition Practices
Giulia Rodeschini

14 Getting the Bodies of the Workers to the Bodies of the Clients: The Role of Rotas in Domiciliary Care
Gemma Wibberley

15 Saliva, Semen and Sanity: Flat-Working Women in Hong Kong and Bodily Management Strategies
Olive Cheung

Index 255

List of Illustrations

2.1 Three types of body work interaction and tensions in the social meaning of the body of the service-recipient 33
8.1 Commonly used body technologies 131
8.2 Variables recorded for content analysis 135
14.1 Joanna’s rota for the day 228
14.2 Joanna’s real rota 230

Tables

Figure
8.1 Percentage of body technologies represented on the DIY site 138